FROM OUR PRINCIPAL

Dear Bishop Ludden Community,

As I write these words, it is gently snowing and I am feeling excitement for what our season will bring us next: exhilaration, freshness, crisp air, expectation..... I feel the same way about Bishop Ludden.

Many good things are happening at Ludden. We are building on our strengths and utilizing these to make a stronger foundation. Academically, we have added a 5 day Math tutor to help our students reach a better understanding and command of math. His name is John DelDuco, and he is dedicated and committed. As I travel down our halls, I see other classes engaged, some noisily, with lessons that will not only enhance their knowledge, but inspire application to the real world of what they are learning.

Our Education Committee, headed by Board member Juanita Williams, has put together a survey for the teachers to investigate what tools they need to be more effective teachers. What more resources, professional development or equipment would enhance their teaching and reaching of students.

We are working hard to make Ludden a better place for education in all ways. House is proving to be a way to build relationships and strengthen communication with students using the time to seek teachers and ask for help. Never forget that our teachers are all dedicated and willing to help your student. All a student needs to do is ask.

I am pleased to let you know that concerns I had mentioned during our Policy Nights last August are diminishing as we build on our partnership to encourage your student to work toward reaching their full potential. I appreciate your support, and while you may dislike getting a phone call, you have been supportive of the reasons for the phone calls. Our policies need to be enforced to create a good and safe environment for all of our students. We are family, and I would do for your student what I would expect a school to do for my family. Sometimes there is no easy answer, or one filled with anguish, but please know that any decisions will be for the best interest of all of our students and environment.

We had a great Open House: 54 families visited us and are interested in Bishop Ludden. There is so much potential here to grow beyond measure. I cannot begin to express my gratitude to all the wonderful people who made this Open House a "WOW" experience, thanks in large part to Mr. Oswalt, our Director of Advancement.

Last, but not least, I thank our teachers for all that they do, and the flexibility they demonstrate. Mrs. Babcock is back to being our full time Librarian. She graciously used her STEM Club background and veteran teacher talents to begin our Science 8 classes. We are greatly blessed. Please continue to pray for me and our Bishop Ludden Community.

BAKE SALE!!!! November 8 (Election Day)

The 2017 Europe Trip is having a bake sale at Bishop Ludden beginning at 6 am and continuing until we run out of baked goods! We need your help! If you can donate baked goods or work for an hour or two, please contact Mrs. Pietropaolo at spietropaolo@syrdiocese.org. Baked goods can be dropped off on Monday, the 7th. Please stop by and make a purchase - you can put them in the freezer for Thanksgiving!

EUROPE TRIP 2017 - Applications are still being accepted! If you are aware of anyone from neighboring schools who have had their trip cancelled, see if they would like to join Bishop Ludden on a tour of Denmark, the Netherlands, Germany and France!

EUROPE TRIP 2018 - we are well under way with enrollments for this trip to Poland, the Czech Republic, Germany and France! Enroll before December 1 and save $200! That incentive will end on Dec 1. For information on either trip, please contact Mrs. Pietropaolo at spietropaolo@syrdiocese.org.

House Points

Have you heard about Hogwarts School? If you have, then you probably know about the Harry Potter books and movies. Bishop Ludden is adopting one of Hogwarts School traditions (not spells or wizardry, of course), but instead the House system points. As you know, all students are split into different houses by grade level. Each house will be competing against one another for a quarterly prize. There will be a junior high winner and a senior high house winner for EACH quarter. Plus, at the end of the school year, there will be a grand prize winner for the most points accumulated from all four quarters combined. The point charts will be displayed on the bulletin boards outside of the cafeteria. Winners of each quarter will receive a prize; such as a pizza party, dress down day or ice cream social party. Again, only the junior high and senior high house with the most points will win the prize, NOT the entire grade level.

So, how do students receive points for their house? There are three different ways:

- 1.) Campus Ministry Peer Leaders and a volunteer senior student will be conducting different activities once a month in the houses. For instance, just this past week, the Peer Leaders did an icebreaker game with each house called "The Human Knot." The class that had the fastest time received the most points.
- 2.) Surprise Dress Code Inspection. Peer Leaders will be coming into the houses and checking if the students are in proper dress code. (see page 3-4 of the Student Handbook – green calendar – for guidelines on dress code)
- 3.) Students can attend certain school activities. Students, parents and faculty will be given a list of what activities will count towards points at the beginning of each quarter. The day after the activity, Peer Leaders will go into the houses to tally how many students from each house attended the event.

Points are given on percentage. For example, if 70% of the house is in proper dress code or attend one of the activities, the house receives 7 points, 80% = 8 points, 90% = 9 points, but if 100% are in proper dress code or attend one of the designated activities, not only does the house receive 10 points, but they will receive an additional 10 bonus points.

So, what's the point of this House System friendly competition? Not just to receive a pizza party, but more importantly, to create relationships and build bonds between fellow classmates.

Best of luck to all houses! If you have any questions regarding the above guidelines, please contact Mrs. Amanda, Campus Minister. (awebster@syrdiocease.org)

Practice, practice, practice.

If one of the keys to success in education is practice, then an important question becomes, "What tools are available to students to facilitate practice?"

If you are a student in Dr. Ostrander's classes, there are many such tools available on the web. Two of the newest additions are the "Parts of a Microscope Worksheet" (see <http://www.nyostrander.us/Science7/Assignments/MicroscopePartsWS.pdf>) and the "Parts of a Microscope Worksheet Key" (see <http://www.nyostrander.us/Science7/AnswerKeys/MicroscopePartsKey.html>).

The fun part is the answer key web page. It comes complete with card flips which allow students to practice by hovering the cursor over the cards which automatically flip over to reveal the name of the microscope part and then flip back to a letter that identifies that part on the image of the microscope. This allows for repeated practice until mastery is achieved.

So, have fun learning on Doc O's whacky world where you can click it and learn it.

Scholarship Exams:

All Students entering Grades 7 and 9 are encouraged and invited to take our scholarship exam on December 10th. The fee for the exam is $20.00.

Knight for a Day:

Students in grades six and above are encouraged to become a "Knight for a Day" and "shadow" a current Bishop Ludden student. Students will be paired with one of our student guides and attend classes, enjoy lunch and participate in the day's classes and activities. Fall shadow dates: November 2nd, 9th & 16th.

For more information on these activities, please contact: Matt Oswalt at 315.468.0053 or email: moswalt@syrdiocese.org

REMINDER: Students MUST have their bus pass with them EVERY DAY for riding to and from school. Students without passes will be charged $2 each way to ride the bus.

The Main Office cannot give out bus vouchers for lost or forgotten passes

Bishop Ludden ChemClub members Isaiah Horne, Zach Horne, Judy Tang, and Johanna Zhou volunteered at The Central New York American Chemical Society's Zoo Boo event at Rosamond Gifford Zoo on October 22. Zoo Boo is an annual opportunity for the public to enjoy Halloween, Chemistry, and the zoo simultaneously. Children dress up and tour the zoo while trick-or-treating. The students, along with advisor Maxine Babcock and STEM Club volunteer Dr. Linda Mandanas, assisted hands-on activities for children.

Interactive displays included creating Zoo Bubbles with dry ice, forensics demonstrations, and chemistry demonstrations. Syracuse University, SUNY ESF, The Alchemist Society, and Auburn's ChemClub also assisted at the event.

Reminder: All cell phones, ipads, ipods and other electronic devices should remain in lockers, turned OFF, from the start of the school day until dismissal. If a violation occurs, the device will be turned over to administration and must be picked up by a parent.

After the Gala meeting is Tuesday November 15 at 6:00pm in the guidance office .

Bishop Ludden STEM Club members Will Contento, Isaiah Horne, Zach Horne, Will Powell, and Johanna Zhou submitted an entry to the Land & Water Challenge portion of the Lexus Eco Challenge. Bishop Ludden's junior high team, Will Anderson, Matt Brunger, Aiden Craner, Amelia Lamendola, and Kate Ruddy will be competing in the Air & Climate challenge. The high school team's first entry was a recycling plan. They plan to work on a solar energy project for the second challenge. Jennifer Andrews is the advisor for both teams

"In the Lexus Eco Challenge, student teams tackle environmental issues related to land, water, air, and climate, and create practical solutions while competing for amazing prizes—for eligible teachers, students, and schools, $500,000 in scholarships and grants awaits. The contest is broken into three main parts. The Land & Water Challenge is first, followed by an Air & Climate Challenge. The Final Challenge is by invitation only, open to winners of the previous two challenges. The Lexus Eco Challenge gets students involved in project-based learning, teamwork, and skill building as they identify an environmental issue that affects their community, use their critical-thinking and research skills to come up with a solution, and report on the results by way of an Action Plan. Teams of five to ten students look to the Challenge Planner for time-management guidance, and are led by one or two Teacher Advisors—who are full-time teachers employed at the school (not volunteers or parents)—to help their community while getting a chance to compete for scholarships and grants."

Bishop Ludden Family Mass at Holy Family

Bishop Ludden had their first family mass at Holy Family Church on Sunday, October 16th. This was a great way to share our hope, love, faith, and spirit with local parishes. At mass we had students participate in the celebration of the Eucharist which not only shows the love and devotion of Jesus but shows the elementary students what Ludden is all about. We are thankful for having Father Jason allow us to come out and celebrate mass. Jesus is at the center of our hearts here at Bishop Ludden and we would love for all of you to join us to share His faith.

7th Grade Retreat written by Abigail McGinn

Bishop Ludden 7th grade retreat was a day of service, reflection, and teamwork, that focused on building friendships and strengthening relationships with God. The day began with mass in the chapel with Father Peter Tassini, Bishop Ludden alumni, who reminisced on his 7th grade year and gave helpful insight to the students. Morning mass was followed by an interactive team building exercise which divided students into groups and set the lively tone for the rest of the day. Each activity represented the theme of the retreat, and focused on building student relationships with each other and with God. At one station, 7th graders decorated paper plate pumpkins for the patients at St. Camillus and the residents at Bishop Ludden Apartments. Through community service, students were able to work together while also working closely to God. Other stations included kickball, bible skits, and "Get-to-Know-Yourself-and-Others," in which students discovered fun facts about their peers. To conclude the day, the 7th grade class gathered to watch each group perform their bible skit and identify the central theme of each performance. Overall, the retreat was successful in laying the groundwork for a fun and faith-filled six years at Bishop Ludden. (Group Picture below)

Friendly Reminder: 7th Grade service project is Joseph's House and all donated items are due by Thursday, November 10

Fr. Kevin Maloney celebrated the Feast of St. Francis Liturgy at Bishop Ludden on Tuesday, October 4, 2016

"How can you dare to be different? Dare to be a Christian. I challenge you to be a better student or a better friend. Help one another. Go the extra mile. Look out for one another just as Christ looks out for us."

- Fr. Kevin Maloney

During First Friday Adoration in October, Peer Leaders, Lundy Toia and Emmalin Harris-Boyden gave personal testimonies on their experiences during Adoration while on Peer Leadership Opening Retreat at Lourdes Camp.

"A little mercy makes the world less cold and more just. We need to understand properly this mercy of God, this merciful Father who is so patient"

- Pope Francis, March 2013
